

Client: Zero Three Care

Project: Support Worker flyers

This design added a touch of sparkle and a hint of festive cheer to the recruitment process for support workers at Zero Three Care.

While we're still primarily a resource for NHS organisations, in recent years our client base has expanded dramatically to include councils, third sector providers, and also private care homes.

So if you don't already work with NHS Creative, come in out of the cold, contact us today, and we'll aim to put a smile on your face!
