

Client: Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust

Project: We are on Trac

It was full steam ahead as soon as we were commissioned to build a recruitment microsite for Oxford Health NHS Foundation Trust. The new site acts as a hub for the various campaigns we help the Trust to deliver, as well as fully integrating with the new TRAC recruitment system. To support the transition to this system, we also developed these 'We are on TRAC' visuals to help the recruitment team to engage with recruiting managers across the Trust.
